We can publicize our protests and spread visibility through city-wide feeder actions: standouts at MBTA stations, door-to-door caroling, flash mobs, any form of public presence in greater Boston directing folks to Burlington door-to-door caroling in any Boston-area neighborhood with flyers

subway flash mobs

Feeder Actions WORK:

- every group designs the form of action that suits it best
- visibility events are valuable in themselves – even if people can't get to Burlington, we spread resistance and courage everywhere.

Some options
Groups at people at public squares, MBTA stations, holiday shopping – with bell-ringing posters on sawhorse boards, distributing flyers or zines about Burlington for an hour or five hours, one day a week or seven

◦ All for one and one for all.
We support all other groups while publicizing our own ◦ No need for central planning ◦ People can spend as much or as little time they want ◦ We can share our flyers and zines or make your own
